MUSICAL MICE

Rare Discovery of a Prominent Bourbon County Farmer At His Home.

(Lexington Leader.)
The following story comes from J. Elmer Boardman of the Little Rock neighborhood in Bourbon county. It may sound weird and incredulous as thought it came from the pen of Washington Irving; but the veracity of Mr. Boardman can not be questioned, he being a prominent farmer and stock trader of that section, also an influential member in the Christian church. According to his statement certain members of his family had been started upon hearing peculiar musical notes sounded in different parts of their house which, of course, aroused much curiosity and apprehension. After making many investigations his wife informed him that the sweet weird songs were chanted by mice, however, Mr. Board could not make himself believe that she had solved the mystery, but a few nights later he went into the kitchen and upon entering the door was greeted with the same mysterious music. After searching around for awhile he decided he had located it under the coal bucket; he proceeded to remove the bucket and to his astonishment there was a number of mice singing, really singing for Mr. Boardman declares it to be just that way.

Certainly a very peculiar freak of nature.
Mr. "Bob" Cole, who for several years past has been the head chef at the Manhattan Restaurant, has gone to Nebraska to make his future home. "Big Bob" as he was familiarly called, will be missed by his many friends on account of his geniality and personality.

At a public sale Monday in Flemingsburg, five shares of the Pierce-Paul Deposit Bank sold for $266 per share.

MRS. MAY'S LETTER TO WOMEN

More Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieves Suffering.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered from a bad case of female ills. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and I took about six bottles. It fixed me up all right. The common symptoms of such a condition--pain when walking, irritation, bearing down, pains and backache, nervousness and disordered digestion--soon passed away. I look much better now than I did before, and I recommend the Compound every time for female troubles, as it did for me all it is claimed to do. You have my permission to publish this letter." Mrs. J. MAY, 3548 S. Lincoln St., Chicago, Ill.

If you have any of the symptoms mentioned in Mrs. May's letter, remember what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for her, and try it yourself. It is a good old-fashioned medicine, made from roots and herbs, and it has helped countless numbers of women.
If you need special advice, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.
